DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's response filed April 20, 2006 have been entered. Claims 6-28 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The outstanding rejection under 35 USC 103(a) over US 6,098,631 ('631) in view of Bridges is maintained.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed April 20, 2006 averring the cited prior art's failure to provide evidence, experimental data or literature references supporting the inhibition of MEK for the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis (RA) have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. '631 clearly teaches that the apoptosis pathway is the essence of the invention (See Fig. 1). Furthermore, '631 teaches that any factors blocking the process proliferation will shift the process to apoptosis and be useful in treating RA (See col. 6, last paragraph to col. 7, line 2). Therefore, further in the col. 7, the method of treating RA would involve the inhibition of MEK (See col. 7, lines 42-46). Now, taking the cited references together as a whole, one of ordinary skill in the art would be reasonably expected to employ any known MEK inhibitors, including the herein claimed compounds, in a method of treating RA since blocking MEK, according to '631, would shift the process to apoptosis, and the treatment of RA thereby.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
